TWO persons have been killed and many others abducted in renewed terror attacks on communities in Munya local government area of Niger State.

The attacks were said to have begun five days ago after the people had about three months respite.

Zazaga community has been targeted in the latest wave of attacks which occurred on Tuesday resulting in loss of lives, kidnappings, raiding of shops and houses, and cattle rustling.

Munya council Chairman, Alhaji Nagumi Kuchi, confirmed the attack during the annual stakeholders flood sensitization and awareness forum, yesterday.

He said: "In the past three months, Munya has experienced peace but for the past five days, there has been a resurgence and it has become a daily attack.

"One of the communities mostly affected is Zazaga community and as of yesterday, the terrorists attacked again killing two people and the number of people kidnapped is not yet confirmed.

"They also burgled several shops and rustled several cattle," he said.

Kuchi expressed optimism that the state government's proactiveness in combating insecurity would bring an end to the attacks in Munya and other troubled local government areas.
