A young man suspected to have been murdered by cultists has been found inside a commercial tricycle at the back gate of the Chukwuemeka Odumegwu Ojukwu University Teaching Hospital \(COOUTH\), Amaku, Awka, Anambra State.

The deceased, who had matchete cuts on his legs and other parts of his body, was reportedly dumped in the area Wednesday evening.

An eyewitness, who preferred anonymity, said she sighted the body while driving out of the hospital.

“I didn’t see the tricycle and the dead man when I earlier parked my car to visit a sick relative at the hospital. It was while I was driving out that I saw the keke with the corpse inside.

“I suspect his killers must have dumped the corpse while I was inside the hospital,” she said.

Contacted, Police Spokesman, Tochukwu Ikenga, confirmed the incident, adding that the body had been recovered.

He said investigations into the incident had commenced.
