Army spokesman, Brig.-Gen. Onyema Nwachukwu, who disclosed this in a statement yesterday, said a notorious terrorist surrendered to troops of 222 Battalion at Geizuwa in Konduga local government areas, following an aggressive operation against Boko Haram enclaves.

“Items recovered from the suspect include one AK-47 rifle, one magazine, and 26 rounds of 7.62mm Special ammunition. The suspect is currently undergoing profiling for further necessary action,” Nwachukwu said.

The army spokesperson said the Chief of Army Staff, Lt.-Gen. Taoreed Lagbaja, has lauded the troops’ high level of alertness and fighting spirit. “He urged them to sustain the momentum and ensure that remnants of terrorists and bandits in their areas of responsibility are completely cleared,” Nwachukwu said.
