

Police arrest native doctor over possession of fresh corpse in Ogun

OPERATIVES of the Ogun State Police Command have arrested a native doctor with a fresh corpse, the command said yesterday.

It said the suspect, Babatunde Kolawole, claimed he took the corpse in an attempt to revive the deceased.

Spokesperson for the command, SP Omolola Odutola, said the suspect was apprehended by operatives at Ado/Odo-Ota area by personnel of the Amotekun Corps.

She said no one had come forward to claim the body, adding that the native doctor was yet to disclose where he got it from.

"Preliminary investigations have commenced into the incident.

• Kolawole

By Precious Igbonwelundu

"Although the suspect did not deny the incident, he claims to be a native doctor who was attempting to revive the deceased.

"However, it remains unclear how the suspect obtained the fresh corpse during the late hours of the night," she said.