

Murder: Three arraigned over alleged false information

THREE persons have been arraigned before a Magistrates' Court in Nanka, Orumba North Local Government of Anambra State, for allegedly giving false information to the police on the murder of Tochukwu Onyemelukwe.

The accused, Joseph Omega, Godson Oforkansi and Martin Okeke were arraigned before Magistrate Chìoma Ikejiofor in a matter

From Emma Elekwa,
Onitsha

with charge number: MCNA/61923.

The fourth defendant, Jacob Enemuo, was absent from court on health ground.

The defendants, accused of giving police false information in a petition written to the AIG in 2021 over Onyemelukwe's death, however pleaded not guilty to all the charges.