

Body of missing varsity student found

Gbenga Omokhunu September 22, 2023

The deceased, Auniversity student, known as Blessing Karami, who was declared missing on September 11, has been found dead. a student of National Open University of Nigeria (NOUN), was declared missing after leaving her place of work in Garki, Abuja.

Read Also: Soludo announces free, compulsory education in Anambra

The deceased's elder brother, Genesis Moses Karami, who relocated from Kaduna to Abuja to lead the search, told reporters that her decomposing body was found inside the bush in Karmo district of the Federal Capital Territory.

Findings showed that the police had arrested one Aminu, the boyfriend of the deceased, who was questioned regarding her disappearance.