

Woman flees after killing husband with pestle in Ondo

Osagie Otabor, Akure September 27, 2023

Another of three, Tayelolu Solomon, is currently on the run after using a pestle to kill her 65-year-old husband identified as Felix Solomon.

The woman was said to have killed her husband while he was asleep at their GRA residence in Ondo town.

One of their son, Ibukun, who witnessed the killing, said their parents have been having issues, saying that his mother used to threaten to kill their father.

He said: “My mother killed my father with a pestle in my presence and took to her heels. She used the pestle to hit his head when he was asleep.

“On that day, a minor argument ensued between them that resulted to a fight. After the fight, my father went to lie on the chair and my mother hit his head with the pestle.

“He became unconscious in the process and fell down from where he was sleeping. My mother used the pestle to hit my father’s head three times and he later died.

Read Also: Tribunal sacks Ondo lawmaker

“When my mother saw that my father was already unconscious, she hid the pestle at the back of our house and ran away.

” I alerted some of the residents, who rushed my father to the hospital. But he later died. His corpse has been deposited at the morgue.

Related Posts

- BREAKING: Tinubu replaces Ondo, Cross River Reps on NDDC Board
- Ondo community vows to reopen school shut 36 years ago
- Ondo Reps member empowers 200 pupils

“My mother had three children for my father and I’m the last child.”

A family member who pleaded anonymity said they have been making efforts to settle the incessant fight between the couple before the killing.

He said: “The woman had been threatening to kill her husband whenever they were fighting. And the deceased informed us about the threats. But we never knew she would carry out the act.