

Bandits kill six, injure four others in fresh Southern Kaduna attack

Our Reporter September 28, 2023

No fewer than six people have been killed and four others injured after bandits attacked Takanai community in Zangon Kataf Local Government of Kaduna State.

The police authorities in Kaduna State are yet to confirm the incident, but the President of Atyap Community Development Association, Sam Achi, told Channels Television that the attack occurred on Tuesday night a few metres away from a military checkpoint and close to Ungwan Juju, the village of the Chief of Defence Staff, General Christopher Musa.

Read Also: Oba of Benin: next Edo governor must respect monarchy

He said the bandits invaded the community at about 7pm and immediately opened fire on two houses, during which they killed six people and injured four others.

Achi further said that the bandits operated for over an hour and left before the arrival of troops that were stationed close to the community.

Related Posts

- Bandits kill five, injure two worshippers in Kaduna mosque
- Wike meets Abuja chiefs, donates 10 vehicles to traditional rulers
- Six feared killed as bandits storm Southern Kaduna village

The Atyap president, however, called on the government and security agencies to step up efforts in addressing the protracted security challenges in Southern Kaduna.