

Baby dies after falling from building

From Sunny Nwankwo, Umuahia

A TWO-YEAR-SIX-MONTH-OLD baby, whose name was given as David Etim, has reportedly died after falling from a school building in Aba, Abia State.

The school, located off Crystal Park Road, off Port Harcourt Road, in Aba South Local Government, is a private school that has pre-nursery, nursery, primary and secondary school sections in the same compound.

It was learnt that the deceased fell from the third floor of the three-storey building and crashed on the floor, sustaining head and body injuries.

The baby was said to have been rushed to a nearby hospital where he was confirmed dead.

Police spokesperson Maureen Chinaka confirmed the incident
