

Gunmen behead policeman in Aba

Sunny Nwankwo October 26, 2023

Gunmen on Thursday attacked police operatives on stop- and- search operation along Umuode/Isiahia in Osisioma Ngwa local government area of Abia State.

Sources said the incident, which happened around 4pm, threw Umuode community into panic as over possible police invasion of the community.

One of the operatives was beheaded by the gunmen.

Other members of the team were said to have run to safety with their ammunition as the gunmen made away with the beheaded policeman's head, abandoning the other parts of the body in the car.

Read Also: Gunmen kill 58-year-old mother in Gombe

The Nation learnt that the gunmen trailed the police team, which has been operating in the community recently.

Related Posts

- Gunmen raze residence of Imo lawmaker
- Gunmen kidnap pharmacist in Plateau

- Gunmen kill nine in Plateau community

It was learnt that the team was attached to the Eziama Police Division, raising questions over the legality of their operation in the community considering that the area is not under their jurisdiction.

An Assistant Superintendent of Police was few months beheaded along East Street in Aba South local government area by some gunmen.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) Maureen Chinaka did not answer several calls placed to her.