

One dead, four soldiers missing in terrorists' attack on Niger community

Justina Asishana, Minna November 7, 2023

The incident occurred on Sunday evening.

It was gathered that the missing soldiers were the ones who had responded to distress calls, following the attack.

Read Also: Learn to leak your wounds, APC counsels Obi

One person identified as Dantala Gyara Miya has been killed and four soldiers are said to be missing as terrorists invaded Allawa ward, Shiroro Local Government of Niger State.

During the attack, the armoured vehicles of the soldiers were destroyed alongside two commercial vehicles with goods inside and several motorcycles.

Related Posts

- Terrorists, bandits' days are numbered, says DHQ

The terrorists were said to have ambushed the villagers on their way to the market before attacking them. In an attempt to escape from being abducted, one of the passengers was shot dead by the gunmen.

The District Head of Allawa, Alhaji Ibrahim Allawa, confirmed the attack to our correspondent, saying the attackers took the community unawares.