

Kano Police arrest housewife for killing her house help

THE Police in Kano State have arrested a housewife, Hafsar Surajo, for allegedly killing her domestic staff, Nafi'u Hafiz.

"The 24-year old woman stabbed the victim to death at Agwam Uku of Taurani Local Government Area of the state," the Police said, adding that a discreet investigation led to the recovery of the knife with blood stain used in committing the crime.

Police Commissioner in the state, Hussaini Gumel, confirmed the incident while briefing reporters in Kano yesterday.

Gumel said "on December 21, at about 0700 hours, a report was received from one Hafizu Salisu of Bauchi Local Government Area that he received a phone call from one Daiyanu Abdullahi of Unguwa Uku, Kano, that his brother, Nafi'u Hafiz, was dead."

According to the Police Commissioner, when the brother arrived at the residence of Unguwa Uku, they discovered several injuries on different parts of the deceased's body.

■ By Fanen IHYONGO, Kano ■

They suspected that the killer had stabbed the deceased with a knife.

According to him, the investigation led to the arrest of the key suspect, Hafsar Surajo, a house wife in the residence where the deceased lived.

He said the suspect confessed to have singlehandedly committed the act by stabbing the deceased on several parts of his body.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

I, Brig. Gen. E. F. Olutumogun (Rtd) of 155B, Isale Eko Avenue, Dolphin Estate, Ikoyi, Lagos, notify the general public that I have applied to Lagos State Development and Property Corporation (LSDPC) for its consent to change ownership of A Wing of a Duplex House known as Block 253A, Ibeju Lekki Street, Dolphin Estate, Ikoyi, Lagos, which was originally allocated to Madam F. A. Fagbenro. The Assignor (Madam F. A. Fagbenro), cannot be traced and cannot honour LSDPC's invitation for confirmation of identity. I hereby indemnify the corporation against any future claims that may arise if my application is granted and undertake to pay cost of any dispute that may arise on same. LSDPC, Madam F. A. Fagbenro and the General public, please take note.