

Two undergraduates killed in Edo cult clash

Our Reporter May 1, 2024

One of the victims was an official of the Students' Union Government (SUG), a 400-level student of Agriculture. He was allegedly shot at the Poultry Road Extension in Ekpoma.

The incidents happened barely 48 hours after one Eddy was beaten and left for dead by a group of persons, for allegedly purchasing some items with fake bank alert.

Information on Eddy's ordeal was misconstrued for an attack by rival cult members, to the effect that he was later killed.

Two students of the Ambrose Alli University (AAU), Ekpoma, Edo State, have been killed in an alleged cult reprisal.

Related Posts

- Edo 2024: Imansuangbon sues LP's Akpata, seeks ex-NBA chair's disqualification
- JUST IN: Two Edo varsity students shot dead in cult reprisal attack
- Violence, thuggery rock APC stakeholders' meeting in Edo

Read Also: Onwuanibe breaks silence over demolition notice on Landmark resort

The misrepresentation of facts led to the reprisal by a rival cult group, resulting in the murder of two undergraduates.

Police spokesperson Chidi Nwabuzor confirmed the incident and said some suspects had been arrested while investigation was ongoing.