

NSCDC arrests son for alleged murder of father in Kano

THE Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) in Kano State has arrested a 25-year-old man, Alkasim Ya'u, for allegedly stabbing his father to death at Tudun Yola 'C', area of Gwale Local Government of the state.

The NSCDC Corps Commandant, Mohammed Falala, made this known in a phone interview with News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Kano yesterday.

He said the incident occurred at the weekend at about 1330 hours at the home of Alhaji Salisu Bala.

"The deceased father, Alhaji Ya'u Mohammed, brought his mentally ill son, Alkasim Ya'u, to Psychiatric Hospital Dawanau, for medical treatment, where they booked to see a doctor on January 6."
