Adamawa murder: Install CCTV

From Onimisi Alao, Yola

FIVE days after a woman was killed in a hotel by her male partner in Yola, the Adamawa State Government has ordered all hotels operating in the state to install Close Circuit Television (CCTV) cameras. The suspect was said to have taken the woman to Happy Day Inn, Jimeta, allegedly beheaded her and fled with the head on January 18.

About 70 registered hotels in the state said to have no CCTV cameras risk going out of business as a result of the new order.

At a meeting with hotel owners yesterday, Deputy Governor, Kaletapwa Farauta, said: "Protection of life and property of the citizens is the Fresh Air Government's top priority."
