

going to work within the confines of the law...'

Terrorists kill one, abduct 21 persons

From Justina Asishana, Minna

S USPECTED terrorists have killed a man identified as Al-haji Ahmadu Dangunu and kidnapped 21 others during an invasion of Dangunu Community in Munya Local Government Area of Niger State.

Dangunu was said to have been abducted alongside his wives and children by the criminals who invaded the community through the waterways.

According to sources in the community, Ahmadu was killed on Sunday evening and his body was dumped at the entrance of the village by the terrorists.

A resident said that Ahmadu was also abducted two years ago but was released after a huge ransom was paid.

Residents are expressing fears over an apparent resumption of terror attacks after a brief respite.