

Four feared dead, many injured in Delta accident

FOUR persons were yesterday feared dead in a fatal crash involving a truck, an 18-seater bus and two motorcycles.

The accident, which happened on the Benin-Onitsha expressway near Agbor, Ika South Local Government Area, left several others with various injuries.

It was learnt some of the victims are in critical conditions at the Central Hospital, Agbor while the bodies were deposited at the mortuary.

A source said the truck laden with merchandise lost control while descending slope by Orogodo River.

An eyewitness said: "As the driver struggled to control the truck, it crashed into a waiting bus which was parked by the roadside and the driver scouting for passengers.

"Aside the bus, the truck also crushed two motorcycles just as the operator of one of the motorcycles was crushed beyond recognition."

Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps, Udemé Eshiet, confirmed the accident.

He said four persons died.
