

One killed, house set ablaze over missing phone in Makurdi

A CAR SET ABLAZE BY MEN FROM THE NIGERIA ARMY GARRISON FOR BEING ALLEGEDLY USED TO CARRY ILLEGAL PETROLEUM PRODUCT, IN PORT HARCOURT ON MONDAY

Uja Emmanuel, Makurdi February 19, 2024

A staff of the Benue State University Teaching Hospital BSUTH, Makurdi has been tortured to death for allegedly stealing a handset. The incident happened at Gyado villa, Kilometer 4, along Makurdi-Gboko Road.

The Nation learnt that a case of missing handset was reported to the youths in Gyado villa settlement who invited the deceased, said to be a suspect.

Read Also; Indigenes inviting herdsmen from Niger Republic to Benue, says Alia

The youths tortured him to death.

On Saturday night, a youth group loyal to the deceased mobilised and razed down the house of the father of the youth leader.

There was confusion in Gyado villa settlement notorious for cult activities.

Many residents were seen packing out of fear of the unknown.

Police sources said investigations had commenced to unravel the brain behind the crisis.