Truck crushes man to death in Lagos

Trucks laden with empty

Our Reporter March 3, 2024

The deceased, Gbolahan Aina, was killed by a truck driver identified as Godwin Donatus around Henry Carr Street, Ikeja, Lagos.

It was also learned that the truck with number plate KJA-74 XQ was said to have reversed and accidentally crushed the man to death.

The incident occurred at about 7:00 a.m. on Saturday.

According to a police source "One Mack truck Tragedy struck again in Lagos yesterday as a 49-year-old man was crushed to death by a truck. with registration number KJA 74 XQ, driven by one Godwin Donatus, while reversing his truck, did not notice that Gbolahan was there and accidentally climbed in him.

Related Posts

- JUST IN: Lagos civil servants to work three days a week
- JUST IN: Four die in fire, road crashes in Lagos
- Lagos: Drugs, firearms and youth unemployment are creating a lethal cocktail in Nigeria's commercial capital

Read Also: Emefiele moves out of CBN Gov's quarters in Lagos

"The victim was rushed to Maryland Hospital and was confirmed dead by the doctor on duty,"

The State Police Public Relations Officer, Benjamin Hundeyin, was said to have confirmed the incident.

The body is currently at the Maryland Hospital Mortuary for an autopsy.