

2 Police raids IPOB/ESN hideout, kill 2

Operatives of the Nigeria Police Force have raided the hideout of IPOB/ESN in the Akwuke community of Enugu South LGA, killing two members of the gang.

Force Public Relations Officer, (FPRO), ACP Olumuyiwa Adejobi who disclosed this on Friday while parading various suspects involved in crimes across the country said the operatives were met with high resistance by these unscrupulous elements but

Gbenga Omokhunu,
Abuja

were subdued due to the superior firepower of the operatives.

Adejobi said, "Two IPOB criminals were killed, one AK-47 rifle was recovered, one SubMachine Gun (SMG), one stainless Pump Action Gun (PAG), 27 live and 23 expended rounds of 7.62mm calibre of ammunition were recovered, and also five live cartridges."

The police said investigation revealed that the breech number of the AK-47 had been wiped off but still, the magazine bore the Nigeria Police Colour, which must have been carted away during attacks on Police Formations.

Also, in other operations, the Police operatives of the Jigawa State Command in conjunction with local vigilantes acting upon credible intelligence stormed the Dangoli Fulani Camp of Kiyawa LGA and arrested two suspects in connection with a case of culpable homicide & robbery.

The suspects are Bello Usman and Musa Babangida all of Kiyawa LGA Jigawa State.

Exhibits recovered are two AK-47 rifles, four magazines, 68 rounds of live ammunition, one constructed leg chain, eight handsets, and one Boxer motorcycle with Reg No. LSR 206 QP, ECOWAS Passport belonging to one Mu'azu Abubakar, cash sum of N221,000), five SIM cards, one solar panel.