

Three feared killed by cult suspects in Rivers community

Rosemary Nwisi, Port Harcourt April 23, 2024

The victims are reportedly loyalists of a cult leader whose real name could not be ascertained, but is fondly known as ‘general crocodile’.

Suspected members of Greenland cult have allegedly attacked and killed three persons in Olokuma community, Ahoada West Local Government Area of Rivers State.

The incident was said to have happened at Olokuma community, Saturday night of April 20.

Read Also: Graça Machel: Meet woman who became First Lady of two different countries

The victims were earlier reported kidnapped and later killed. Their killers allegedly made away with their bodies. One of the bodies has however been retrieved by their gang members, while efforts to recover the other two are on.

A source from the community, who pleaded for anonymity, said the attack could be a reprisal.

Police spokesperson Grace Iringe-Koko promised to get back on confirmation and comments.