

Hoodlums kill one, injure others

HOODLUMS yesterday invaded Nnewi, Anambra State, killing a security guard and injuring others.

However, it could not be ascertained whether they were trying to implement site at home

The security man was simply identified as commander were in a Sienna vehicle donated by Senator Ifeanyi Ubah.

The windscreen of the vehicle was shattered and many people had been rushed to one of the hospitals in Nnewi.

From Nwanosike Onu, Awka

The phone line of the Police Public Relations Officer, Ikenga Tochukwu, SP, could not be reached for confirmation, but another senior Police Officer, who pleaded not to be quoted, confirmed the incident.

He told The Nation that the command, in collaboration with other sister agencies, were on the trail of the hoodlums.