

Oyo govt probes patient's death

Oyo State government has commenced investigation into the death of a patient at a prominent private hospital in Ibadan.

Commissioner for Health, Dr. Oluwaserimi Ajetunmobi gave the hint yesterday.

She assured that the ministry will keep the public updated on the matter.

Related News

- Proposed protest: Oyo govt summons stakeholders meeting
- Canada-based indigenes medical equipment for Oyo govt
- Oyo govt directs removal of shanties, frowns at dumping of building materials on roadside

---

Read Also: Neconde affirms commitment to CSR amid recent community protest

---

She said: "It has come to the attention of the Ministry of Health, Oyo State, of a video clip in circulation over an unfortunate incident of a loss of life that occurred to one of the patients at a prominent private hospital in Ibadan.

"On behalf of the Oyo State government, the Commissioner for Health, Dr. Oluwaserimi Ajetunmobi, wishes to commiserate with the family of the deceased."