

Sule fumes as gunmen kill Fadama III project coordinator in Nasarawa

Nasarawa State Governor, Abdullahi Sule, has expressed shock at the brutal killing of Hassan Yahaya Egwa, the State Coordinator, Fadama III project.

The governor stated this yesterday during a condolence visit to the residence of the deceased in Lafia, adding that the late Hassan was a brilliant and committed young man who gave his best to uplift the lives of the people through the NG-cares programme.

Governor Sule added that Egwa's dedication, selfless service to the state and his pleasant disposition will be missed.

Related News

- Governors not opposed to new minimum wage, says Gov Sule
- Gov Sule raises concern over increase cases of kidnapping
- How Sule ended killings in Nasarawa, by traditional ruler, ex-Nasarawa Speaker

Read Also: Violators of airport rules will face justice, FAAN vows

The governor has since directed security agencies in the state to carry diligent investigations to pursue, fish out the perpetrators of the dastardly act and bring them to book.

Stating that "Criminality does not have a place in our society," Sule urged all to shun crime while reiterating government's resolve to prioritise security and welfare of the people.