

Abducted FUNAAB varsity student murdered

A 300-level student of the Federal University of Agriculture, Abeokuta (FUNAAB), Ogun State, Christiana Idowu, who was kidnapped along the Ikorodu-Yaba Road has been murdered.

Christiana had left her home at Itaoluwo, Ikorodu, Lagos for the University of Lagos, Yaba, where she was undergoing her industrial training (IT) when she was abducted by the kidnappers.

The suspect has since been arrested by security agents.

He reportedly confessed that he killed the victim and buried her in their house.

Related News

- Why senate seeks review of suspension of management courses at FUNAAB - Shuaib
- Firm, FUNAAB partner on food security
- 122 to bag first class as FUNAAB holds 31st convocation

Read Also: Sanwo-Olu appoints three key aides to strengthen Lagos leadership

His action drew the ire of many Nigerians on social media with many Nigerians on Twitter, demanding justice for the victim, asking relevant stakeholders to ensure justice is served.

They trended the hashtag — #JusticeForChristianah.

According to an insider account by @Letter_to_Jack on “X” (formerly Twitter), He said: “On the 19th of August 2024, Christiannah Idowu was declared missing after her parents were contacted by her abductors using her own WhatsApp contact.

“The first contact with the parents was established around 8:49pm after which they sent photos of the victim in captivity to them using the WhatsApp ‘view once’ feature.