

IPOB vows to avenge murder of unarmed coordinator

The Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB) has condemned the killing of its unarmed coordinator, Mazi Emeka Akubuo, by the Anambra Vigilante Group (AVG) in Osumenyi, Nnewi South LGA.

The IPOB Directorate of State on Friday in a statement by its Media and Publicity Secretary, Comrade Emma Powerful described the murder as “dastardly” and vowed to avenge the death.

“The late Mazi Emeka Akubuo was murdered in cold blood by a soulless and notorious Anambra Ebube Agu group called AVG. What was his crime? His only crime is being a member of a non-violent freedom movement fighting for the freedom of Biafrans.”

Related News

- IPOB condemns army's alleged murder of innocent civilians
- IPOB denies threatening Imo workers, accuses Police Commissioner of misinformation
- IPOB warns Southeast youths against British Army recruitment

Read Also: IPOB denies attacking police, tackles Uzodimma, Mbah on insecurity

The IPOB has called on Governor Chukwuma Soludo to fish out the perpetrators and prosecute them for murder, failing which the group will take action.

The IPOB emphasised that its members are peaceful and unarmed civilians fighting for the freedom of Biafrans.

“We cannot be working to set our people free while some people are killing their saviours to please our collective enemies. Biafrans must hold this Igbo saying dear at this critical time, Igwe bu ike,” Comrade Emma Powerful said.

