

Gunmen shoot man dead

A 20-year-old man has been murdered in Okokomaiko, Ojo, Lagos, by four unidentified gunmen.

The incident occurred around 9:10 p.m. last Friday on Abeokuta Street, where the victim was chased down and shot multiple times.

According to the police, the assailants fired several shots at the young man, targeting his head, stomach, and leg.

The victim succumbed to his injuries at the scene. The attackers fled immediately.

The police anti-crime team responded to the distress call and arrived at the scene shortly after.

Related News

- Gunmen kill two in Rivers community
- Gunmen assassinate lawyer in Aba
- Gunmen kill police officer, two others, burn down stations in Imo

Upon arrival, they met a woman identified as Vivian, who confirmed that the deceased was her 20-year-old son.

His identity is being withheld for security reasons. The victim lived with his mother at the same address on Abeokuta Street.

Read Also: Gunmen kill two in Rivers community

---

Photographs of the deceased were taken, and the body was subsequently evacuated and deposited at the Infectious Disease Hospital (IDH) mortuary in Yaba, Lagos.

The Lagos State Police Command has launched an investigation into the incident.

Efforts are ongoing to trace and apprehend the fleeing suspects for prosecution. The case has been transferred to the appropriate authorities for further and discreet investigation.