

Terrorists kill two women, eight others in Niger

Two women in Wayam community of Sabon-Gari in Rafi local government area of Niger state have been killed for rejecting the sexual advances of terrorists who invaded their community.

The incident, which occurred on Tuesday, also saw eight others killed by the terrorists while several houses and food stuff were burnt down.

It was learnt that the incident occurred in the early hours when the residents of the community were preparing for the day.

The terrorists reportedly rode into the community on motorcycles shooting into the air while some came down from the motorcycles to ransack the houses and burnt them.

Related News

- Terrorists kill two women for refusal to be raped
- Respite in Northwest as more terrorists bite the dust
- Terrorists kill 13 vigilantes, abduct several commuters

Five of the residents were killed on the spot, including the two women who rejected to be raped. They were beheaded and their heads taken away by the terrorists while five others died of bullet shots after the attack.

Read Also: NAF kill several terrorists in Niger

Sources from the community said that the survivors have left the community over the fear of another attack while those who were killed have been buried..

Attacks by terrorists have been ongoing along the Wushishi-Tegina-Kontagora road in the last one week after the denial of the military of the occupancy of terrorists in the military training camp in Kontagora.

The Commissioner for Homeland Security, Rtd. Brigadier General Bello Abdullahi Mohammed said the state government was aware of the attacks adding that the security agencies have been mobilized and they are on top of the situation.