

Corps member killed on way to Ebonyi camp

One prospective member of the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) was killed and several of her colleagues injured on Wednesday in a road accident on their way to Ebonyi State.

A source said: “The Corps members had an accident on their way to NYSC Camp for the ongoing orientation. The accident happened at Amenu community in Okposi. The female Corps member died.

“The bus is a 14-seater bus with 12 of them being Corps members. Others sustained injuries.”

---

Read Also: NELFUND's loans hit N116.184bn

---

A source at the hospital confirmed that the victims were brought to the hospital.

Related News

- Kwara demotes teacher for stripping Corps member
- Desertification: FG urges corps members to plant trees before leaving service
- Community spends N100m on facilities for corps members

“Yes, I saw them in the evening. They were brought by security officials. They are responding to treatment,” they source said.

The state Sector Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps, Igwe Henry, confirmed the accident.

He, however, said he had no details of the casualties.

He said: “At the time our men from Amasiri Unit Command got the information, and got to the scene, the victims had been rescued. They didn’t carry out the rescue, and, therefore, could not ascertain specifics of what happened.”

