

Three die in Edo auto crash

Three persons yesterday lost their lives in an auto crash near Auchi in Etsako West Local Government Area of Edo State.

The crash occurred at Igbira Camp, with a Toyota Camry saloon car colliding with a motorcycle close to Onhemi, a busy area populated by the Hausa-Fulani.

It was gathered from witnesses that some persons sustained injuries, and were moved to nearby hospitals for treatment, while the bodies of the victims were deposited at the morgue of an undisclosed hospital in the area.

Related News

- Edo confirms eight Lassa fever deaths, 56 cases
- Gov. Okpebholo allocates portfolios to new commissioners in Edo
- Edo tribunal: Group condemns harassment of PDP witnesses by EFCC

Read Also: Walk away if your marriage isn't working, Yul Edochie speaks against domestic violence

Emergency responders and many residents provided first aid for the injured persons, and assisted in moving them to the hospitals.

The state Sector Commander, Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC), Cyril Mathew, and its Police Public Relations Officer, Moses Yamu, a Chief Superintendent of Police (CSP), could not be reached at press time.