

Court remands suspect over alleged murder of Poland returnee

A Mobile Court sitting at the State Criminal Investigation Department (CID) in Umuahia, Abia State, has ordered the remand of one Ebochue Kingsley Uzoka, 40, over his alleged involvement in the murder of one Chimaobi Anya Ojo.

The suspect was arraigned for conspiracy and murder. According to the charges, Uzoka, along with others who are at large, were accused of conspiring to murder and kill Ojo on September 20, last year, at Nkata Ibeku in Umuahia North.

Read Also: Court remands suspect over alleged murder of Poland returnee

Chief Magistrate P. N. Lekwa, adjourned the case to February 19, and directed the court's Chief Registrar in Umuahia North, to transmit the case file to the state Attorney-General for further prosecution.

Related News

- Court remands suspect over alleged murder of Poland returnee
- Bayelsa court sentences four to death by hanging over kidnapping
- 'No court fined lady for failing to visit boyfriend after N3,000 fare'

Ojo, 36, a native of Elu Ohafia in Ohafia Local Government, had returned from Poland in February, last year to meet his newborn daughter and prepare a comfortable home for his family.

The victim's life was said to have been cut short shortly after celebrating his daughter's first birthday last September 8.