

Police on trail of truck driver for killing three in Ogun

Operatives of the Ogun Police Command are on the trail of the truck driver who crushed three automobile technicians to death at Kemta, Abeokuta, on Wednesday.

Police spokesperson, Omolola Odutola, a Chief Superintendent of Police (CSP) disclosed this on Friday in Abeokuta.

Odutola explained that the driver escaped from the scene, immediately after the incident happened.

Members of the Nigeria Automobile Technicians Association (NATA) at the Ajebo Mechanic Village, Abeokuta on Thursday, protested the killing of their colleagues.

The technicians blocked the Ajebo/OGTV road and vowed not to allow trucks to ply the road until necessary steps were taken.

Related News

- Police recorded over 17,000 gender violence cases last year
- Exclusive: Police recorded over 17,000 gender violence cases in 2024
- Police recover 125 stolen manhole covers in FCT

---

Read Also: The Ogun State 'Baale' who 'owns' the Police

---

They sought for concrete solution to eliminate the series of accidents being experienced around the area by the government.

Odutola said: " The driver is at large. The technicians are aware of the whole issue that he has not been arrested. The truck is in the police station."

The chairman of the Ajebo Mechanic Village Chairman, Saheed Arulogun, also confirmed that the truck driver was at large.

Arulogun noted that the truck owners were making moves to ensure that the deceased were released to their families for burial.