Danjuma recalled that this was the third time the chairman had been targeted by gunmen.

He said: "The gunmen attacked him and shot him severely in the body.

There are bullet wounds on the body. After they shot him, they fled the area. Security personnel, including police and soldiers, have responded because we were with them at the hospital when he was rushed to the hospital."

The youth leader, however, described the attack on the chairman as sad. "He played a vital role in ensuring peace within Barkin Ladi. His demise will continue to linger in our memory because of his significance to sustaining peace in the community," he added.
