

Police arrest murder-suspects in Delta

Delta State Police have arrested two suspects who allegedly killed Mr. Chigozie Udalor, an engineer, contracted to construct offices at Akwukwu-Igbo, Oshimili North Local Government Area Delta State.

Its image maker, Mr Bright Edafe, a Superintendent, said police operatives launched an investigation after the case of a missing person was reported at Akwukwu-Igbo Divisional Police Headquarters.

According to Edafe, the police arrested a suspect, David Tacho after he attempted to withdraw money from the victim's account through his phone.

Related News

- Delta police exhumes engineer's body after suspects confess to murder
- Police, stakeholders caution against jungle justice
- Ogun Police beef up security at Sagamu interchange

Read Also: Police, stakeholders caution against jungle justice

He said operatives further arrested another suspect, Daniel Orshio, adding that the two others (Victor Tacho and Pius Daniel) are at large.

Edefe said the four suspects were hired by the deceased, adding that the suspects upon discovering the victim had money in his account, conspired among themselves to kill him.

Part of the statement reads, "On the 12th of December 2024, one Hyacinth Nnalue reported to Akwu-kwu Igbo division that his cousin Chigozie Udakor had been missing since the 10th of December 2024. He also stated that the said Chigozie was his site manager at his fish pond in Bod camp Akwukwu Igbo community.