

Rainstorm kills Taekwondo coach

Rainstorm has killed a taekwondo coach, Musa Ismail, in Ilorin, the Kwara State capital.

The incident happened on Monday at the Lower Niger River Basin Authority(LNRBDA) in the metropolis.

Musa, who was described as an amiable Badminton coach by some of his trainees, was said to have been crowned as the 2025 MKA Taekwondo Championship in Ede, Osun State.

---

Read Also: Late Pope humble, courageous – Catholic Secretariat of Nigeria

---

It was further gathered that the storm, which occurred between 5:30p.m and 6:p.m, also destroyed the Badminton court within the LNRBDA.

Related News

An eyewitness said that a section of the renovated Badminton court collapsed and fell on the deceased .

The coach played and trained at the collapsed facility with friends, it was learnt.

Investigations showed that the Badminton court has been sealed with the collapsed section visible from outside the structure.

Though LNRBDA did not confirm the incident, a staff member of the authority said: "The incident is very tragic. It happened unfortunately during the rain on Monday, adding:"The facility has been closed down."