

Death toll in Lagos building collapse rises to three

The Lagos State Emergency Management Agency (LASEMA) has recovered three dead bodies in the building that collapsed at Ikorodu on Tuesday.

The Nation learnt the deceased were a man aged 74 and two siblings who were aged 18 and 12.

Related News

- Three rescued in Lagos building collapse
- Lagos bans night construction to avert building collapse
- Building collapse: Enough is enough

Read Also: FG to equip 12 universities with high-fibre internet, 24-hour electricity

LASEMA Permanent Secretary, Dr Olufemi Oke-Osanyintolu, in a statement made available to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) yesterday, also said the three people that trapped under the collapsed building had been recovered dead.

He added that nine adult males were also rescued and attended to by the LASEMA Pre-Hospital Care Unit.