

NAF airstrikes foil Sallah day terror attack on Borno

The Nigerian Air Force (NAF) said yesterday that its fighter aircraft had decimated key Boko Haram hideouts at Tumbumma Baba and Chiralia in the Southern Tumbuns, Borno State.

NAF's Director of Information, Air Commodore Ehimen Ejodame, said the feat was achieved in a series of precision airstrikes conducted under the auspices of Operation Hadin Kai on June 5 and 6.

Read Also: Zulum, Shehu urge FG to fast-track Alau Dam project to avert looming disaster

Ejodame said: "Acting on credible intelligence, NAF aircraft targeted terrorist structures reportedly used for storage and coordination by the terrorists.

Related News

- CAS to terrorists: we will find you and take you out
- NAF strikes kill 20 terrorists, destroy 21 motorcycles
- NAF seeks locally driven solutions to security challenges

"The air strikes delivered direct hits, crippling planned attacks aimed at disrupting Eid celebrations.

“Battle Damage Assessments confirmed the neutralisation of several terrorists and the destruction of key logistics structures.

“This pre-emptive action underscores the Nigerian Air Force’s commitment to safeguarding civilian lives and supporting national security objectives.”