

Three siblings, four others die in road crashes

Seven persons have been confirmed dead in multiple accidents that occurred at two different spots in Ibadan, Oyo state yesterday.

In one of the accidents, three siblings who were on their way to school were overrun by a truck in Celica area, Egbeda Local Government while four other persons lost their lives in another road mishap at Idi-Ori along Ibadan- Oyo Expressway in Akinyele local government area of the state.

The affected siblings were said to be standing by the roadside when the truck ran over them.

Related News

- Renew commitment to democracy Oyo gov hopeful urges Nigerians
- Oyo reaffirms commitment to resilient cities
- Oyo begins disbursement of Bodija explosion relief fund

Read Also: Nigeria's \$5b oil-backed loan from Aramco delayed by oil price drop

The driver of the truck, according to eyewitness account, lost control of the vehicle and ran over the victims.

At Idi-Ori in Akinyele Local Government Area, four persons were confirmed dead while two others suffered varying degree of injuries in a road mishap that occurred at Idi-Ori end of Oyo expressway.

Four out of the six victims died on the spot while the injured are receiving medical attention at the University College Hospital, Ibadan.