

AAU final-year student found dead after missing for five days

A Final-Year student of the Ambrose Alli University, Ekpoma, Edo State, identified simply as Blessing, has been found dead five days after she was declared missing.

The late student was said to be in the Department of Micro-biology.

Sources said she was seen last Sunday but got missing after an examination held the next day.

Related News

- Edo varsity suspends academic activities
- How I made Ambrose Alli best state varsity in Nigeria, by VC
- 75 fresh beneficiaries begin Graduate Internship Scheme in Edo

---

Read Also: AAUA: Police to extend school protection squad to Ondo tertiary institutions

---

The sources said messages sent from her phone suggested that she was kidnapped and ransom demanded.

However, policemen were said to have stormed her residence and found her decomposing body within the compound.

Edo Police spokesman, Moses Yamu, confirmed the incident and said investigation has commenced.