

Gunmen kill three police officers in Kogi attack

The Kogi State Police Command yesterday confirmed the killing of three of its officers by gunmen at a checkpoint in Egbe, a community which shares boundary with Kwara State.

Spokesman for the command, Superintendent of Police William Ovy-Aya confirmed the incident yesterday, saying the incident in the morning.

Related News

- Police arrest self-proclaimed "Obi of Lagos," foil installation ceremony
- Domestic violence: Police arrest father with firearms, rescue mother, children in Abuja
- Four ways to convince police you're not a Yahoo boy

Read Also: CBN launches Nigeria payments system to drive digital financial transformation

Ovy-Aya added that the Commissioner of Police, Miller Dantawaye had deployed the police tactical team to the area, adding that they were on the trail of the gunmen.