

Family members kill each

••Dependants kill breadwinner as brothers beat younger brother unconscious

The harsh economic situation in the country may have reached its peak as families' members are at war with each other over basic economic needs resulting in deaths.

Estranged family members beat two persons to death in Oke-Odo, Alimosho area and Alakuko in Agbado area in two separate occasions.

The incident took place at 4, Omolaja

Street, Oke-Odo, the police there are trying to uncover how Paul Chukwuma, Caroline Chukwuma, Patience Chukwuma, all relatives residing together ganged up and beat up their breadwinner, one Emmanuel Chukwuma to death.

According to police sources at Ile-Epo police station, it was one Adepoju Kehinde who heard a loud noise following the scuffle, which resulted in the death.

The body of the deceased as been deposited at the public mortuary, while the police has commenced investigations

In another related development, one Emmanuel Kazeem residing at 18, Foursquare Street, Omikunle Kollinton was beaten to a state of coma, by his two elder brothers Joseph Kazeem and Joshua Kazeem, all residing in the same apartment.