Lagos Police Kill Four Robbery Suspects, Recover Arms

By Enakeno Oju, Lagos

Determined to make Lagos State a crimefree State, the state Police command, on Monday, gunned down four robbery suspects. A detachment of anti robbery police squad from Ajah Police Station while on patrol along Epe road in the wee hours exchanged gunfire with some armed men. In the process, two bandits were gunned down while others escaped. The Lagos State Police Public Relations officer SP Frank Mba, disclosed that two locally made pistols, three live ammunition, seven live cartridges and one unregistered motorcycle were recovered from the robbers. Mba further told Niger Delta STANDARD that, over the weekend, a team of policemen from Apapa Police station acting on a tip off exchanged gunfire with some armed men at a hideout at Olomokun Street, Amukoko area. Two robbers were killed while others escaped. In another development, there was a report at Ketu Police station that there was a fire outbreak at No. 21 Olayomi Street in Ketu. The fire was put out by fire servicemen assisted by policemen from the Station who were at the scene to provide security. As at the time of writing this report the cause of the fire and value of property destroyed was yet to be ascertained.
