rying sand crushed a commercial motorcyclist (okada) and his passenger to death.

Immediately they heard of the deaths, the colleagues of the unnamed commercial motorcyclist went on rampage, indiscriminately attacking motorists and shattering windcreens.

An eye-witness said the commercial motorcyclist and his passenger kept to their lane before "the driver of the lorry, who apparently lost his brake and, ran over them."

lasted for about four hours.

Confirming the incident, the Lagos State Police Command's spokesman, Mr. Olubode Ojajuni, said the driver was already in police custody.

Ojajuni said the police had since restored normalcy to the area.

"We have taken care of the situation; hoodlums wanted to cash in on the situation and wreak havoc but our men but we chased them away. The accident was unfortunate, but it has happened," he said.
