

PHCN WORKER ELECTROCUTED

AN employee of the Power Holding Company of Nigeria (PHCN), Alhaji Abdu Maikarfi, was electrocuted in Katsina on Monday when he stepped on a naked electricity cable.

Maikarfi was on his way to a mosque close to his residence when he stepped on the cable during a heavy downpour.

An eyewitness said the incident occurred at about 5.30 a.m. at Tashar Gagare area of Katsina.

The remains of the deceased had since been buried according to Islamic rites.

PHCN employees in Katsina, led by the Business Manager, Alhaji Arabi El-Mafaty, have visited the family of late Maikarfi to pay their condolence.

El-Mafaty described the death of Maikarfi as a great loss to his family, PHCN and the nation in general.

He prayed for the repose of his soul and the fortitude for the family to bear the loss.
