

Kogi legislator dies in auto crash ... Valedictory session today

BARELY one month after the death of Senator Tijani Ahmed from Kogi State, in a road accident, a member of the State House of Assembly, Honourable Mohammed Onusagba has died.

The 43-year-old legislator died in a lone road accident along Muye-Minna road on Thursday in his official Peugeot 406 car.

Married with children,

Onusagba known for his vocal on the evils of anti-people policies by governments, was elected into the state legislature for the second time in 2003 having had the first stint in 1999.

Meanwhile, his colleagues have slated a valedictory session in his honour for today.

GOV IBRAHIM
SHEKARAU ...of Kano
State