

2000/2001 fiscal year.

Those to be honoured at the valedictory session in-judges, magistrates and registrars to enhance effective administration of justice.

Police arrest 4 robbery suspects

THE Lagos State Police Command has arrested four robbery suspects at the Okokomaiko/Trade Fair complex on the Lagos/Badagry expressway.

The command's spokesman, Mr Olubode Ojajuni, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that five suspects were initially arrested, but after investigation, one of them was found to be innocent and was released.

He said the command had been inundated with complaints on the activities of the hoodlums, which had resulted in the loss of some innocent lives in the area. Ojajuni said a group of plain-clothed policemen were deployed to area, which led to the arrest of the hoodlums.

He said two locally made guns and 10 rounds of ammunition were recovered from the suspects. The police spokesman said a lawyer was allegedly killed by some unknown assailants last week at the Barracks bus stop, located in the area. He said the suspects had made useful statements that would assist the police in tracking down other members of their gang.