Man, 25, killed by unknown persons

TWENTY-FIVE-year-old Emmanuel Abel popularly called by friends "Emmy", was last Thursday morning found murdered by unknown persons by the road side in Kaduna.

The corpse was found with the head badly smashed with blood oozing out of his mouth, nose, the two ears and the eyes, while his phone and shoes were placed on the corpse.

An elder brother to the deceased, Mr. Michael Abel was said to have been called by an unknown person using the deceased's phone to tell him that his brother was killed and he should come down to take the corpse. When the brother got there, he met his late brother lying lifeless. The corpse has been taken to the mortuary while the matter has been reported at the Sabon Tasha Police Station for investigation.
