

Suspected assassins kill Jalingo businessman

...21 arrested over Prince's murder

From MAGAJI HUNKUYI, Jalingo

TARABA State Police Command has arrested eleven suspects in connection with the assassination of the son of Chief of Gashaka even as a Jalingo based businessman, Alhaji Saliu Abubakar has been murdered.

The number of suspects arrested in connection with the assassination of Usman Hamangabdo who is the son of Chief of Gashaka, Alhaji Hamangabdo Gambo is now 21.

The Police Public Relations Officer in charge of the command, ASP Solomon Isa who confirmed the arrest of the suspects said they were all taken to the Force Headquarters in Abuja for further interrogation, while no arrest has been made over the murder of the business man.

However, a sister to late Usman Hamangabdo, Mrs. Batulu Hamangabdo who was the immediate past Secretary to the state government has received a threat text message on her mobile phone.

New Nigerian learnt that the former Secretary to the State Government who is also the daughter of Chief of Gashaka received a text message from an unknown person threatening to kill her.

Following the threat, armed policemen have been drafted to her residence where they are currently guarding the house for twenty four hours.

DISBAND TH