THE police in Dadiya town of Gombe State has discovered the corpse of an unidentified middle-aged man suspected to be a victim of ritual killing.

The Deputy Commissioner of Police in the state, Mr. Daru Nkendeme, told the News Agency of Nigeria Monday in Gombe that the body was found by the side of a stream.

Nkendeme, who said the matter was reported to the police on Friday, added that the headless corpse had its stomach open and the heart removed.

He said the paramount ruler of Dadiya town, Alhaji Abubakar Galadima, had reported the matter after which policemen went to the scene to discover the body, in a pool of fresh blood.

The commissioner stated that it was when the body was taken to the General Hospital, Kaltungo, for post-mortem that doctors discovered that the heart had been removed.

He added that the corpse had been examined and photographed for further investigations, and later released to the Dadiya Chiefdom for burial as the body could not be identified.
