

Nigeria (CAN) Kaduna Multi-Purpose Complex at the CAN Secretariat, Kaduna ... recently. PHOTO: UMARU DALANGA.

3 ROBBERS KILLED IN KWARA

From ALI MUHAMMAD RABIU, Ilorin

head of Gida dies
Depot Nigerian Army, Battalion Training officer (communication) and quarter Master.
On disengagement from the Army, late Captain Adamu went into private practice and ventured into different businesses before he was called back home to serve his people.
The deceased is survived by a wife, Mrs. Hauwa Adamu, six children and five grand children.
Among the children are Mr. Gideon Adamu, Mr. Daniel Adamu, Stephen, Henry, Jeremiah and Charity Adamu.
The deceased has since been buried according to Christian rites, at his home town Aduwan Gida.

armed robbery syndicate who specialize in robbing passengers and motorist along Eyenkorin, Bode Saadu Jebba road were Wednesday shot dead by a combined team of men of the Kwara State Police Command and a Vigilante Group in the state who recovered arms and ammunitions from them.

The police has also shot and killed one armed robber and arrested one while they were about operating at a shop along Ibrahim Taiwo road in Ilorin metropolist.

Prading the suspects the state commissioner of police, Alhaji Audu Abubakar said the suspect was caught while operating along Bode Saadu Jebba road at about 10 am Wednesday.

According to him during the incident, the Special Anti robbery Squad of the command was alerted adding that it swung into action immediately.

The commissioner who spoke through the Police Public Relatiopns Officer of the command also noted that during the gun battle three members of the gang were killed and others escaped with gun wounds.

He said the second group of the armed robbers were caught when the owner of a shop on Ibrahim Taiwo road Ilorin called the police through their distress callline when she saw strange faces of two men who came to the shop pretending to want to buy laptop computer.

He said immediately the police arrived there - the suspects were rounded up and in the process one was gunned down and the other one arrested.

He said when a search was conducted on the suspects, a double barrel, cut to size gun and seven cartridges were recovered from the suspects.

He called on the general public to assist the police in searching for the run away persons with gun shots.

He also appealed to the public to assist the police with information on suspicious persons in their midst for prompt action.

MR. MIKE OKIRO ... I-G of Police

Coalition wants international participants in Niger-Delta